

THREE FEATURES IN BATTLE WITH WHITE PLAGUE

More Room in Hospitals, More Clinics and an Educational Campaign

ALL ARE IMPORTANT.

Novel Plan to Use Gas Relates to Aid Campaign is Commended.

Social workers, doctors, ministers and laymen, with one accord, endorse the novel plan of the Committee on the Prevention of Tuberculosis in their effort to secure a portion of the gas rebate money for the extension of their campaign against tuberculosis.

Three features of the campaign have been especially emphasized in the letters had with several of New York's most prominent social workers, namely, the need for increased hospital accommodations, for a larger number of special tuberculosis clinics, and for an increased educational campaign. None of these three features can be dispensed with, and it is hard to say which of them is the most important.

Dr. James Alex. Miller, President of the Association of Tuberculosis Clinics, and one of the most active doctors in New York in the tuberculosis crusade, spoke enthusiastically of the work that has been done within the past three years by the special tuberculosis clinics of New York City.

"Don't you think that the great need in the tuberculosis crusade is for an increase in the hospital accommodations?" Dr. Miller was asked.

"Need More Hospitals."
"Certainly we need more hospitals.
There are hundreds of patients to-day who would not have gone two years ago, and this has been due to a large extent to the work of the Association of Tuberculosis Clinics and the Committee on the Prevention of Tuberculosis, which are closely allied."

"I believe if the Committee on the Prevention of Tuberculosis could get sufficient funds to increase the number of tuberculosis clinics and equip them with tuberculosis nurses and nurses, that we could soon have practical control of every person in New York City who suffers with this disease."

"Supervision Needed."
"In a recent examination of a limited number of families of patients attending our clinics, it was found that in 51 per cent. of the families one or more of the children were infected with the disease. It is safe to assume that this condition pretty generally prevails, and we need to extend the work of the clinics to such an extent that these could maintain absolute supervision in the home of every person in this city who is suffering from the disease."

"Another important feature which we need to greatly extend is the careful supervision of patients who come home from hospitals and sanatoria as cured or arrested cases."

Dr. Antonio Stella, one of New York's leading physicians, by whose effort a special tuberculosis clinic has been established in connection with the Italian Hospital, in the very heart of the Italian district of the city, expressed himself, when seen to-day, as cordially indorsing the plan of the Committee on the Prevention of Tuberculosis to secure, if possible, a substantial sum from the gas rebate to extend their work against tuberculosis.

A Comprehensive Plan.
Dr. John W. Brannan, President of the Board of Trustees of Bellevue and Allied Hospitals, said in connection with the committee's effort to secure the funds for the increase of their work:

"I believe this committee, on account of its large experience in relief and educational work and through its intimate relations with the tuberculosis clinics and the Board of Health, is in the very best position to carry out a comprehensive plan looking toward the elimination of tuberculosis from this city."

Dr. John H. Huddleston, Vice-President of the Association of Tuberculosis Clinics, and an active crusader in the tuberculosis campaign for many years, said when seen to-day:

"The trouble is that by far the greatest number of people do not go to a doctor or a dispensary until the disease is somewhat advanced. They do not even know that they have tuberculosis until they have passed the stage when an easy cure might have been accomplished, so that one of the problems that we must face is the seeking out of cases who have the disease in the incipient form, and the special tuberculosis clinic is in a position to do this more thoroughly for the entire city than any other agency that I know anything about."

BRONX NOTES

One of the recent successful social affairs in the Bronx was the third annual ball of the Democratic Hibernian Club, held at Zeltner's Morrisania Casino last Monday evening. The officers in charge of the affair were: Miss Mac Kennedy, president; Miss Kathryn McDonnell, treasurer; Miss Bertha McDonnell, secretary; Miss Mary Kennedy, financial secretary, and Mrs. William J.
Kennedy, chairman. The Arrangement Committee was in charge of Miss Florence McGarr.

The Bronx Borough Employees met recently in the Bronx Masonic Temple, on Washington street, to discuss the proposed plan, and organized under the name of the City Civil Service Employees' Association, the following officers:

President, Charles J. McGarr; vice-president, Patrick J. McMahon; secretary, Francis D. Lohmeyer, and treasurer, Benjamin W. Ronzone.

Patrick J. King, one of the well-known residents of Van Nest, is in New York from some time. Mrs. L.
Lawrence, of Westchester, is a guest of friends at Lakewood.

The breakfast dinner given by Louis Gaudier to a number of friends at his home, Westchester, a few evenings ago, proved most enjoyable. A valuable programme of high order was a feature.

The Gamma Delta Sigma held its annual ball at O'Hara's Bedford Park Casino a few evenings ago.

The Second Battery, First Battalion, with military band, gave a concert near One Hundred and Seventy-seventh street, held its annual band concert and show at headquarters on last Saturday night. The event proved the most successful in the history of the battery.

Walter F. Malone, of Tremont, has returned after an extended trip through the Middle West. Mr. Malone is well known in business and social circles on the north side.

Among the Bronxites who have recently been appointed commissioners of dead are: A. M. Bremer, of No. 1757 Seaside avenue, Charles E. Hickey, of No. 2067 Westchester avenue, Union-port; George Bluff, of No. 817 East One Hundred and Fifty-second street, J. Sturges, of No. 200 East One Hundred and Forty-second street; Charles A.
Buttini, of No. 1572 Prospect avenue, and Dr. Taylor, of No. 420 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street.

A euchre party held a few days ago at the Casino Club, Fordham road and Westchester avenue, the proceeds of which were for the benefit of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, was a big success both socially and financially.

BURIED ALIVE WHILE "PLAYING FUNERAL"

Youngsters at Wappinger's Falls Have Narrow Escapes from Death.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Feb. 24.—The half dozen youngsters who had a merry time burning two of their companions alive yesterday in St. Mary's Cemetery, Wappinger's Falls, while "playing funeral," will not take chairs in comfort for several days, and the chances are that there never will be another "play funeral" in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Johnnie Horton, five, and Joe Gillen, eight, were buried for fun by their companions yesterday. They were in a deep hole and both were "playing dead." When earth was thrown over them when rescued by the father of the Gillen child both were unconscious.
Then the parents of the grave diggers got busy.

The annual fair of Richmond Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Tottenville, which opened at the Richmond Hotel on Monday evening, will close tomorrow night.

Arrangements have been completed for the annual banquet of the Richmond County Automobile Club, which will be held at the St. George Hotel on March 6. Among the speakers of the evening will be Comptroller Herman Metz and Lewis Nixon.

The Joseph Younger Association will celebrate its anniversary with a ball at the German Club Rooms, in Stapleton, on April 17. On the committee of arrangements are: Henry Pape, Joseph Sullivan, William Nollan and John Koellner.

Miss Agnes McCarthy, of Green-ridge, is visiting friends in Newark.
An entertainment and drawing, under the auspices of the German-American Dramatic Club, will be held at St. John's Hall, in Staple-ton, on March 11.

Dock Commissioner Spooner has official notice to the Staten Island Rapid Transit Railroad that the Municipal Ferry will not cooperate with the railroad in regard to reduced rates.
This means that commuters living in the Westfield section of the island will have to pay full fare on the ferry.

William Templeton, of Crosswicks, has gone to Virginia on a business trip.
